YOUR WILL...AS ONE!

Many times we hear FGBMFI Members say, “I wish I could give more to the fellowship.” Yes, there is a divine way that you can...simply by putting the Fellowship in your will. Globally... as one...your will can continue to bless others, even after you have graduated to heaven.

It's God's will in Matthew 25:14-30 that you wisely use and increase the assets that God has given to you. Maybe God is impressing upon your heart to think of FGBMFI when you are house in order.”

But a Christian will is for the living! A Christian will is an instrument of life! Through your will, you are given an opportunity to testify to the moving of the Holy Spirit in your life. It is an instrument through which your witness and your example can live after you and bear fruit for years to come. By your will, you can influence other members of the Fellowship the great promise of eternal life!

Please prayerfully consider your Fellowship in your estate planning. Call Ron Weinbender at FGBMFI Headquarters for more details: 949.461.0100.

Management

Michael Postlewait, Overland Park, Kansas

Michael Postlewait presents “Management By Strengths.”

My grandfather built a summer cabin, just west of Boulder, Colorado and we still go back there most summers. In the summer of 1975 while we were there on vacation, we came across a home that was for sale. We quickly decided that we wanted to live in the mountains, though it meant leaving the job at the pharmaceutical company that I had for 13 years. We packed up and moved with our six children to live on top of a mountain.

I soon became a sales manager of a telephone systems company. The company subscribed to a profiling system that they used to interview sales people. I found that the information the profile provided was valuable not only in hiring people, but also in how to understand people that I had hired. It was perhaps even more valuable working with people who were already with the company, in particular our operations manager with whom I was not getting along good with at all. Finally understanding his temperament and communication style dramatically improved our relationship and we actually became friends after that.

I was intrigued by the data that the profile provided, and felt that it was something I wanted to pursue further. I decided to start my own consulting firm focusing on helping companies improve their working relationships based on better understanding the temperaments of the people that they interacted with.

The study of temperament has been around for thousands of years. When most people teach about it they stress that it has both positive and negative aspects, something good and something bad about the temperament traits. We teach that really there is nothing bad at all about a person's temperament. Granted, sometimes our temperament can control us, and that can have negative consequences.

For many people, the study of temperament is about understanding themselves better, at least initially. You cannot really understand other people and their different styles until you better understand yourself. Each person sees and interacts with the world around them through the filter of their own personality so better understanding ourselves is the logical first step in the study of temperament.

I knew through my own experience in business that almost all companies have managers who do not get along. Everyone has human differences and sometimes those differences clash. Improving those types of relationships is often the most immediate benefit to the CEO who makes the decision to bring us in. He or she sees the impact that MBS has on the company's culture, the management team wants to push the program down to their departments, then it catches on.

After three months into the business I called on the president of a telephone equipment company in St. Louis. He wanted me to teach his sales people on how to sell phones. He was going to pay me $2,500 a month to come in for one day a week. He said, "I want you to meet our best sales person, but I want to warn you, she's a Jesus "freak". All she ever talks about is Jesus." "But can she sell telephones? That's all I care about." She would be instrumental in me getting saved.

I was supposed to talk with her about the upcoming training that I was going to be providing. The first thing she said when I met her was, "Are you a Christian?" I looked at her and said, "Well, yes." The question took me by surprise. I'm a Catholic, after all. Next thing she said, "What do you mean by that?" Nobody had ever asked me that. "I went to Catholic schools." She just smiled at me and said, "Well, that's nice." She handed me a little tract with a smiley face with "Jesus Loves You" on it. She encouraged me saying, "You ought to read this when you have time. It will help you to understand what it means to be a Christian. Us Christians are really interested in you and your family, in the long run."

Those words were penetrating, because with regard to my family there wasn't any long run! It was Monday of that week in August, 1979 and I was to go back to Kansas City to catch a flight on Friday, to go to Denver to meet with an attorney to proceed to get a divorce. There wasn't any "long run"!

I went to the Kansas City post office to get my mail. There was a box that my wife had sent me. I opened it up and it was filled with letters and birthday and anniversary cards from over the years. My wife was a born again Christian. I almost threw it in the trash can, but for some reason I took it out to the car and proceeded to read every single one of those cards and letters. I started crying like a baby. I said out loud, “God, please help me!” Fortunately, what’s beautiful about God’s Word is that you don’t have to know it in order for it to work. It says in the Word, “If you call upon the Lord for help, He will help you.”

I looked down and on the seat of my car was the little tract that the woman had given to me a few days ago. I picked it up and it said, “God loves you!” I felt good, because I didn’t feel like anybody loved me. The next page said, “You’ve sinned!” I thought, “No kidding!” Next page said, “Jesus came...” Then the next page said that I had to receive Him into my life. It gave some scriptures, etc. It had a little prayer at the end, for me to ask Jesus into my life. Then it said, "If this expresses the desire that is in your heart, read this out loud." I sat there and I read that tract out loud, sitting in the car.

I looked up and I saw a pay phone on the wall outside a drug store. I had this tremendous desire to go home! I got out of the car and called my wife and she was home. I said, "I've really messed up our marriage." She exclaimed, "No kidding!" "I want to come home!" She had been praying with a prayer group that I would call home. She said, "I wish you would." I didn't tell her that I had already bought the plane ticket. Obviously, we had some long talks. But my life had been totally transformed.

I went back the following week to work with this company again. I found the girl that had given me the tract and said, "Marla, what you said last week really penetrated me." God used her words that week to give me a new life. Now, before I ever get up and teach anybody, I always pray, "God, please use my words for your glory."

That led to a hunger for reading the Word. My wife thought I had become a religious fanatic. Maybe, but our kids have come to know Jesus!! This is the most important thing. I just agreed with the Word of God and our children, one-by-one, each one of them came to know the Lord within the next year. It was awesome.

I was introduced to the Holy Spirit at a FGBMFI meeting where Benny Hinn was teaching a workshop on the Holy Spirit. They just invited people to come. We sat around in chairs in a circle where they explained the Baptism in the Holy Spirit. They laid hands on us, and we began to speak in other tongues.

God began to show me how to do business, basing it upon the Word of God. We started getting new clients and the company really began to grow. All of our clients come to us through word of mouth. It was the Holy Spirit doing it. I am in a continual conversation with the Holy Spirit on how to run the business. Business men and women are searching for the truth. When you teach them the truth, they just gravitate to it. MBS works because it is based on truth. The program that we teach to businesses is called Management By Strengths, the foundation of our business is Management By Scripture. MBS is based upon truth and the principles in the Bible...1 John 3:16 Hereby perceive we the (Agape) love of God, because Jesus laid down his (soulish) life for us: and we ought to lay down our (soulish) lives for the brethren.

When we get our focus off ourselves and our own personal needs, and onto somebody else, God flows right through us. ■

TRULY SET FREE!

JOHN WALKER, United Kingdom

After going through the various degrees of Craft Masonry, I went on to the order of the Royal Arch of Jerusalem and the Knight's Templar. Freemasonry was definitely a very important part of my life. Then something changed...

My wife and I were nominal believers. Every Sunday morning we'd go along to church. However, to be totally honest, I just sat there, completely blank. In fact, my mind would wander to the business and how to build a successful enterprise. Then, remarkably, one Sunday the minister seemed to be speaking directly to me. At the end of his address, he said, "I have found a real blessing from Christian books and have placed some at the back of the church for your use.” When the service ended, I went and picked one up.

I had never read any sort of Christian book before, but it was so riveting that I found I couldn’t put it down. It spoke of people knowing Jesus Christ in a personal way, of people being healed, and of the Baptism of the Holy Spirit. I remembered thinking, “Are these things for real?”

About that time our company needed another surveyor. We ran a newspaper ad and thought we’d be overwhelmed with the response as had been our previous experience. This time, however, only one person replied. At his interview, he started out by saying, “Mr. Walker, the first thing you should know is that I am a Christian.” To this I blurted out, “Well, I go to church as well!” “Yes, but that is not exactly what I mean,” he replied.

In spite of these strange statements, the man impressed me very much and I offered him the position. That was when he really astonished me. He said, “Well, I can’t accept now.” I asked if he had other offers, but he assured me that he did not. The salary was okay as well. I pressed him for an explanation. “There isn’t a problem,” he told me, “but I’ll have to go home and pray with my wife. Only after the Lord Jesus Christ tells me to come to your firm can I accept.”

As it turned out, he did join the firm and, though he was never pushy about his faith, I could see something in him that was steadfast and true. Every month he would invite me to a meeting of the Full Gospel Business Men’s Fellowship International. Finally, unable to find any more excuses, I went along with him. Well, I thought that those people were crazy!

However, I was overwhelmed by the wonderful sense of love they seemed to have one for another. I was also convinced that they actually cared about me. A few months later, I very simply went upstairs one night, sank to my knees in my bedroom and invited Jesus Christ to be Lord of my life. I knew He answered that prayer. I somehow felt brand new.

Some time after this I read in the Bible that when the Holy Spirit comes, He will lead us into all truth. After I received the Baptism of the Holy Spirit, I found that participating in the rituals of Freemasonry made me feel dirty. It seemed that every time I'd enter a Christian book store, I was confronted with books about Freemasonry and Christianity. Then, in July 1981, I was invited to a very rare event – the consecration of a Knight's Templar Preceptory Facetery. Arriving early, I decided to go for a walk around the town. By chance, I came across a Christian bookshop. There, in the middle of the window, was a great big sign reading, "Can a Christian be a Freemason?" It hit me like a sledgehammer.

Afterwards, I went into that meeting under a tremendous conviction. That was when I started praying every single day, "Lord, if You really want me to come out of this thing because it is not of You, You have to do something so dramatic that I know it is You speaking."

Later that year, I had been out, and on my way home, my radio would not work. I played about with it, but it simply would not work. About a mile from home a seemingly audible voice spoke in the car and said, "John, ask anything in My name and it shall be given unto you. Command this radio to function properly." All I could think of was that I had been working too hard – and I did absolutely nothing. The voice repeated itself, this time with a greater urgency. After that I said, "Okay!" "In the name of Jesus, I command this radio to function properly!" Nothing happened! I remember thinking, "Lord, I'm sorry; I missed it."

TRULY SET FREE!

“Good! You listened and you obeyed. Now leave the radio turned on. When you stop the car and start it again, the radio will work.” When I got home, I had to get out, unlock and open the garage doors. When I started the car again to pull it into the garage, to my surprise, the radio burst into life.

On relating this experience to the young Christian man working in our office, he said, “John, I believe that was a very small test of obedience. The Holy Spirit was waiting to see if you would listen and obey what He told you to do.” Five days later we had our normal FGBMFI chapter breakfast meeting. The main speaker had never shared in front of a group of people before, so he had written everything out and was simply reading it. Then, about half-way through, he put down his papers and said, “The Spirit of God just came upon me. God told me there are a couple of Freemasons in this room. God’s Word for you is that you must renounce it.” Well, my heart started to race. I knew God was speaking to me, and I responded in obedience. I had never met the man before and nobody in the chapter knew that I was a Freemason. I had kept it a complete secret. As a Christian, I now believe that Jesus is the only way to God.

The result of following Jesus Christ has been remarkable. I’ve seen many miracles happen at FGBMFI meetings.

In our business, we have made a conscious choice to place it under God’s direction. We have regular prayer times in the firm. There are always difficult decisions to be made because we are responsible for our clients’ money. I believe that the overriding thing is that I must act honorably and in my clients’ best interest, but I also need the mutual trust of the contractors with whom I’m dealing. I will never compromise that stand because I believe that the way we conduct ourselves in business is a tangible witness to the world around us of our Christian faith.

In FGBMFI, I am encouraging the men in Europe to work together through the Fellowship in a new way; to really take hold of the vision that Demos gave us. I've seen this divinely-inspired vision touch the lives of so many people. I see very encouraging signs in Europe. The Lord gave me a word that there would be breakthrough. We are starting to see that. FGBMFI is a part of the means of bringing in that breakthrough.

For the most part, Europe is spiritually and morally bankrupt. The whole Gospel for the whole man is more relevant now than at any time in history. The best is yet to come.

I've seen this divinely-inspired vision touch the lives of so many people. ■

It's A GREAT LIFE At ANY AGE!

Tee Ross, Florida

Originally, my father was a wealthy man! I found out that he was a bootlegger and a member of the “Black Hand”, similar to the Mafia. My interest in music was fostered through my father who had a piano brought in by surprise one day. He watched me as I was perplexed by this. Not knowing what this meant, he looked at me, laughed, and said, “Tony, you will learn to play the piano. You will not work in the coal mines like I did”. Gradually, I sat down and played along with the radio. This was all by ear! I could not read music. Teachers came along in time and I played very well.

My baseball chums loved to hear me and wondered, “How can you play the piano, and still be a good ball player?” I was no “sissy” and they respected me. In time, my mom bought me an accordion and I was pretty good at that! Little did I know that this was the start of an exciting life ahead. The “riches turned to rags” when my father gambled everything and lost two homes.

I was shocked and wondered what was to become of me? My father got very sick, had a stroke, and ended up in a Columbus state hospital. I never saw him again!

My mother's father and brothers came to the rescue and brought us to Struthers, Ohio. They built a little store, so Mom could make a living, selling small items in the neighborhood. How drastic this was for us! Mom was a strong positive lady who could handle anything! She was determined to make a way for her two boys! My grandfather and uncles helped us financially and got me to join their musical groups with my accordion. Little did I know what was ahead!

I started my first dance band as a sophomore, playing all the school dances. My band name became "Tee Ross". The band director took a liking to me and helped me to develop. As a senior, I was made Student Director of the High School marching band, playing the tuba. I was awarded a scholarship to what later became Youngstown State University. I knew how to study, practice, my instruments and even took up tennis, later graduating.

My only introduction to church was through college chapel services on Fridays. It was not impressive to me; just singing some hymns and a pastor talked about things I was not interested in. While in college, I played all the college dates, and was very popular for proms and other colleges. I was too busy with band dates, studies and accordion teaching to do anything else. Girls? I had no time for that! I had things to do! My drive and ambitions amazed my family and others who knew me!

Meanwhile, I met a girl named Alice Kenney on a tennis court date, who later became my wife. We had 3 children: Duana, Kenny, and Patricia. My kids sometimes went to church with friends. In 1945, the band played three weeks at an Indiana Resort.

This was a rough time for me. This was also a turning point for me! A big decision, as I lay in the hospital with pneumonia, as to me opening my own music studios and store. I built this into the leading accordion studios of Ohio with 1,000 students. Then came radio and TV shows. The band traveled on weekends and played ballrooms in various states. In 1950, I met Lawrence Welk and Myron Floren, who did two shows for me in Youngstown, Ohio. I was influenced by the big names of the day like Tony Bennett, Duke Ellington, Harry James, Count Basie and Benny Goodman. Sammy Kaye was a big encouragement to me.

But did I know who might be guiding me all this time? Absolutely not! I was never exposed to church or the Bible in any way. I was at that period of life that something needed to happen to me and it did! Meanwhile, I was asked to join the Struthers Rotary Club as music director. I loved the motto “Service Above Self”.

In 1978, my youngest daughter Pat told us she had met the Lord! We did not understand what this meant. We humored her and told her to be careful and not to get too “kooky”. She carefully arranged for mom and dad to be invited to a banquet by people who were her in-laws at the time. Little did we know what we were in for! IT WAS AN FGBMFI BANQUET! We had never heard of this group. The Fellowship, the smiles, the hugs, the Gospel music and what they called testimonies was most unusual! It was about someone named “Jesus” the Son of God. The songs were about “Him.”

We felt out of place, but were drawn there again. By the third time, we knew it was something we both needed, so we accepted “Jesus Christ as our Lord and Savior!” I met Jesus at age 62 (It’s never too late!). That same night when I got home, I was looking at myself in the mirror and bang it happened! Strange sounds came out of my mouth. I found out later that I had been baptized in the “Holy Spirit” and was speaking in tongues!

My dear wife Alice, who had been ill, suddenly went with the Lord in 1979. It was a severe grief time for me and the children. They were all married, and I was left alone. Now, I knew why I accepted the Lord! He knew “I would need Him” and I did! In 1980, the business failed for many reasons. Everything was gone! I had nothing left but “Him!” I became closer to Him and was driven now by the “Power of the Holy Spirit.”

In 1981, I was asked to share my testimony at the Ashtabula, Ohio FGBMFI Chapter. It was my first time and I was really very nervous, but it went well. This launched me on a new chapter of life as a speaker, evangelist, Gospel musician. This was truly very exciting for me at this time. The loss of my first wife and my business was being healed through a powerful force I never knew existed!

Tee and Trish Ross enjoy the Florida sun. Tee Ross' new book is available by emailing him.

Trish was introduced to me by my oldest daughter, Duana, in 1980. We married in 1985. In 1988, I was invited to be a conference speaker at Christian Retreat, where we had honeymooned. This was an accordion player and a Big Band Man; and now look! What an exciting life it has been!

My life with FGBMFI was exciting and rewarding! I had such a love and admiration for our founder, Demos Shakarian. On a couples' advance for FGBMFI, Demos was present along with his son Richard. At the end of the evening, the announcement came that Demos was going to pray for all Chapter presidents. I went forward. Then we were asked to pray for Demos! I was standing next to Demos. Imagine my excitement, when I laid hands on this great man of God and prayed for him. He smiled as we both felt the power of the Holy Spirit and said, "I felt that-brother" and whoa, what a night that was!

In 1997, adversity struck again! I needed spinal surgery. The pain left but I was in Rehab for 6 months and had to learn to walk again. I had a deep depression, feeling that I could not be active again! Not so! Healing began with the "Master" in charge.

Trish and I decided to move to Florida in 1999. We are now embarked on serving in a new Ministry of Encouragement through our new book, "It's A Great Life At Any Age" (with 7 Keys to a Happy Life). ■
